

WATER COMPANY MAKES SOME MORE PROMISES

WILL SUBMIT A PRICE WHEN WORD IS RECEIVED FROM WESTERN STOCK HOLDERS.

SOLVING LIGHTING QUESTION

Council Suggests Ten Single-Light Posts to Block as Cheaper and Better.

Delay in securing the co-operation of California stock holders, who control about one-third of the stock in the Dixon Water company, has been given by Attorney C. B. Morrison as the reason for the company's delay in submitting a price on the plant to the city, according to an announcement made to the city council last evening by Mayor Brinton, who held a long conference with the attorney Sunday.

The discussion of the water and light questions was the only interesting thing that came before the commissioners last evening, following a star chamber conference in the mayor's office previous to the meeting, and the greater interest was in the water question.

Is Not Good Statement.

The mayor announced that during his conference with Attorney Morrison he had called the attorney's attention to several evasions in the statement. "The statement the company has submitted does not show how much cash they had on hand when they started, nor does it show how much was owing them. In fact, all one can gain from the statement is that the company started with water. And neither is it shown how much cash the company has on hand. I called Mr. Morrison's attention to these details and he has promised to supply them. Regarding the inability, thus far, to secure the opinions of the California stockholders, Mr. Morrison announces that he has a telegram to the effect that they will meet him in Chicago today."

Thus the councilmen are anxiously waiting for that final proposition from the water company, and are living in hope that negotiations will reach such a stage by next Monday night that a proposition will be submitted to the company.

Talk About Lights.

The discussion of the water question naturally brought up the lighting question, and the request of the merchants' committee that they have one week more in which to ascertain the wishes of the merchants to purchase posts, was granted by the council. The aldermen discussed the relative merits of the single lamp to the three lamp standards, and the opinion was that ten of the single lamp posts to each block, instead of six three-lamp standards, would in addition to being cheaper in the cost of operation, be far superior in that the illumination would be more evenly distributed and the ornamental effect would be enhanced.

The popularity of the single-light standard in Peoria, where there are over four miles of street illuminated in this manner was brought to the council's attention, and the councilmen will urge that the merchants adopt the smaller post, but to put ten in each block.

The possibility that the merchants might think the posts too expensive, as expressed during this discussion, caused one of the aldermen to remark that the city would gladly buy the posts if the merchants would pay for the current used.

An application from G. G. Utley to erect an arway under the sidewalk of the building he is erecting on First street, was referred to Commissioner Schuler with power to act, and the council adjourned.

PRISONERS SHOW DESTRUCTIVE MOOD

DAMAGE PROPERTY WHILE CONFINED IN LEE COUNTY JAIL.

The destructiveness of some of the prisoners in the Lee county jail is causing Sheriff Reid considerable trouble, and thus far all efforts to ascertain which one of the inmates is damaging the property have failed. But the officers have not given up and hope to determine the guilty ones and put a stop to the maliciousness. The latest form of their destructive nature was exhibited this morning when it was found that the steam radiators had been moved and tipped in such a manner as to break the legs and loosen the connections. The radiators are now being set in concrete.

MAKING NEW LAND IN ROCK RIVER

THEREFORE ROCK FALLS COUNCIL GETS AFTER STERLING MANUFACTURING CO.

Sterling, Oct. 17.—Special to the Telegraph.—At a meeting of the Rock Falls council last evening the city attorney of Rock Falls was instructed to notify the war department of the United States of the alleged misappropriation of water rights by the Sterling Manufacturing company.

This company's plant is in Rock Falls and is situated, on the river. For many years, declare the members of the Rock Falls council, the company has been dumping refuse into the river opposite their plant and building new land out into the stream, a little each year, until at present they have choked up the outlet of the Rock Falls sewerage system, and have seriously encroached upon the rights of the city.

There were two courses open to the council. They could have applied to the supreme court for an injunction restraining the company from building out into the river, or they could get the war department after the offenders, as Rock river is declared a navigable stream.

SOCIALIST MEETING AT THE CITY HALL.

The socialists will hold a meeting at the city hall tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. H. C. Mestmaker, who is sent out by the national office, will deliver the speech of the evening. Everybody is invited to come out and hear him.

Miss Sarah Livingood of Franklin Grove was here today shopping.

IMPROVE RESIDENCE DISTRICT LIGHTING

PROPOSE DISPLACING THE ARC LIGHT WITH TUNGSTEN LIGHTS AT EVERY CORNER.

The members of the city council have practically decided upon a new system of street lighting in the residence district, which they think will prove more satisfactory and will also be of less cost to the city. Their plan is to take down every arc light in the residence districts and to have a 60-candle power Tungsten incandescent lamp hung on every corner in the city.

They point out that on the north side, where a number of the new Tungstens have been placed the light is nearly as good as that supplied by the arcs, and that by having one of these lights at every corner, and in the long blocks one every 300 feet, the illumination can be more evenly distributed, and the cost will not be so great.

The commissioners stated that the residents to whom they have mentioned the proposed change, pronounce it a very good idea and after the matter of illuminating the downtown district is settled, the council doubtless will start to determine the exact data necessary for the rearrangement and remodeling of the lights in the residence district.

MAY OPEN END OF M'KINNEY STREET

WOULD SAVE A LONG DETOUR FROM SHORT AVENUE TO ASSEMBLY PLACE.

It is very possible that McKinney street will be opened from Short avenue through to Assembly place in a short time. Attorney John Erwin who owns considerable property along the closed street and who represents several other property owners, presented the matter informally to the council last evening and the commissioners announced that they were ready to do the work. Accordingly City Attorney Keller will draw up the necessary papers and it is probable the work will be started in a short time.

The street, as platted, runs to within 125 feet of Assembly place, but it has never been used, inasmuch as drivers of vehicles could not get through there, and as several homes have recently been built or are being erected there, the property owners feel it should be opened.

Mr. Erwin has offered to donate some of his land for the opening of the street, and he is of the opinion that the proposed improvement will not be costly to the city. The opening of the street will doubtless be pleasing to deliverymen who work in that part of the city, as it will save them a wide detour of several blocks to get from Short avenue to Assembly place.

SHOT A RIFLE IN CITY LIMITS

LAD IS ARRESTED; OFFICERS SERVE NOTICE ON PARENTS OF DIXON.

Wilson Abbott, a 16 year old lad, was arrested on complaint of a citizen last night for shooting a rifle inside the city limits. The lad was not prosecuted, however, but after being given a lecture by Justice W. G. Kent, was released. But the authorities took occasion to remind the parents that they are liable for the fines their children may receive for violation of the ordinances or state law for shooting and that the hardware men who sell weapons to minors are also liable to a heavy fine under the state law. The next offender in this particular will be prosecuted to the limit and it is possible also that the hardware man who is selling boys the guns will have a chance to contribute to the public fund.

Phila. Wins; 11 Innings

Third Game in World Series Marked by Sensational Playing.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 R-H-E
PHIL--00000000102-3-9-2
N.Y.--00010000001-2-3-6

New York, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Special.—A crowd, fully as large as that of Saturday when the Giants and Athletics started their world's series here, crowded the Polo grounds long before noon today to witness the third game between those evenly matched rivals. New York confidence is fully as great as ever and there is plenty of money in sight with but few takers that New York wins the series.

"Big Six" Mathewson loomed up bigger than ever in the warming up, and accordingly it was not necessary for McGrath to make any change in his plans, and Mattie went to the slab. Jack Coombs, hero of last year's series between the Athletics and Cubs, went to the mound for Connie with Lipp, his exclusive catcher, doing the backstopping.

Neither side was able to get a man anywhere near the rubber in the first two innings, the pitchers working smoothly and the defense taking care of everything that came their way. In the third the Giants shoved the first run across, the score being the result of a hit, a sacrifice and a sacrifice fly.

From then until the eighth neither team got a man to first base. In the first of the eighth Philadelphia got two men on through clean singles, but could not score, both runners being forced. New York went out in their half of the eighth.

Baker's Homer Ties Score. Philadelphia tied it up in the first of the ninth in a most sensational way when Baker, home run hero of yesterday's game, broke the hearts of the Giant crowd and took the smile off Big Six's face with a clean home run into the center field stand. None of the others could connect safely and when New York was retired one, two, three in their half of the ninth the first extra inning of the series became a certainty.

The finish of the game was the most exciting in the history of the Polo grounds. The enormous crowd nearly tore the stands down in pulling for the Giants. Neither team scored in the tenth, but the Athletics put the rollers under Mattie, the pride of all New York, in the 11th.

Merkle's Costly Error. Oldring, first man up, was an easy out. Collins singled. Baker hit to Herzog, who threw cleanly to first, but Merkle dropped the ball, and both men were safe. Murphy singled to right, scoring Collins. Davis followed with another single scoring Baker, but Murphy was caught stealing and Lipp fled out.

A Game Fight. The Giants fought gamely in their half, but fell one short of overcoming the American leaguer's lead. Herzog lead off with a double into the crowd, where he stayed while Fletcher fled out and Myers grounded out to first. Becker was sent to bat for Mathewson, and delivered, placing a clean single on which Herzog scored. Devore wasn't able to come across and fled out, ending the game.

NO GAME IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Special.—The Sox-Cubs game, scheduled for the West Side park this afternoon, was called off because of wet grounds.

SUIT WILL BE TRANSFERRED TO LEE

CASE AGAINST CHAS. PLEIN IN WHITESIDE COUNTY TO BE TRIED HERE.

Attorney John Erwin was in Morrison yesterday on business in the case of Mrs. Jennie Keenan vs. Chas. Plein, in which Mrs. Keenan is asking damages of the defendant for selling her husband liquor on the day he met his death by falling under an interurban train on the S. D. & E. The suit had been started in the Whiteside county circuit court, inasmuch as the time it was commenced, Mr. Plein was in the saloon business in Sterling. However, as all the witnesses and parties concerned in the suit reside in Dixon now, on agreement of the attorneys for both Mrs. Keenan and Mr. Plein the case was dismissed in the Whiteside county circuit court and will be started in the local court. Mrs. Keenan will ask damages to the amount of $15,000.

The wedding comes as a surprise to most of their friends and unites two prominent Dixon people. Mr. Dauntler is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dauntler of Heinlein avenue, this city, and is connected with the firm of Fellows & Co., wholesalers of soft drinks. Mrs. Filson has been for four years secretary to one of our leading attorneys, A. C. Bardwell, and is very highly esteemed and popular. They are receiving the congratulations of many friends and will reside in this city.

Dixon Woman's Club.

The Dixon Woman's club has added several new departments to its work for the coming year, among them the department of Household Economics. The first meeting of this department was held Saturday at the beautiful home of Mrs. Chas. Hoy.

The president of the club, Mrs. Burnham, called the meeting to order and introduced Mrs. Bertha McWethy as chairman of this department of the club work. Mrs. McWethy gave a splendid talk about how the work had been planned and what they expected to do during the coming year. At each program papers will be given on some household topic, and for this meeting the first paper was on Domestic Science and its relation to the home, by Mrs. J. E. Traber.

Mrs. Traber handled her subject in a masterly way, and her paper not only showed the result of intelligent study but of practical experience. The theme is a broad one and of vital interest to the woman who has the care of a home. Mrs. Traber handled the subject in such an able manner that rather than give a few fragmentary thoughts from a paper of such interest the Telegraph will print the paper entire as soon as there is opportunity to place it in type.

Mrs. Burnham followed with a paper on "The Grape and Its Uses." She gave many interesting facts concerning the ancient history of the grape; of its being spoken of in the early history of the bible, the finding of grape seeds in the embalmed mummies and in the Roman and Grecian excavations. She told of the many uses of the vine, both practical and ornamental. She told of its medicinal properties and its value as an article of food. It is said that the Germans use what they call a grape cure in that nothing but grapes are used for food for a certain period. She told of the food percentage in the grape and how it might best be obtained to secure its full value.

To illustrate this paper the hostesses, Mrs. Hey and Mrs. A. E. Sinclair, served unsweetened unfermented grape juice followed by grape sherbet and cake and delicious grapes from the vine.

A pleasant afternoon was spent and all voted that the start of the new department of household economics had been a success.

ANCIENT ARITHMETIC.

Problems Schoolboys Had to Solve Thirty-six Centuries Ago.

There is a ray of vindictive comfort for the modern schoolboy in the fact that for over 3,000 years his schoolboy progenitors have been worried by just such problems in arithmetic as annoy him most.

Among the archaeological discoveries made in Egypt is a papyrus roll, in excellent condition, dating from about 1700 B. C. This roll, which had a long heading beginning, "Directions how to attain the knowledge of all dark things," proves beyond doubt that the Egyptians of that time had a thorough knowledge of the elements of arithmetic.

Numerous examples show that their principal operations with units and fractions were made by means of addition and multiplication. Subtraction and division were not known in their present form, but correct results were obtained nevertheless.

Equations are also found in the papyrus. Here is one that brings the Egyptian schoolboy home to us:

Ten measures of barley are to be divided among ten persons in such manner that each subsequent person shall receive one-eighth less than the one before him.

Another example given is: There are seven men; each one has seven cats; each cat has eaten seven mice; each mouse has eaten seven grains of barley; each grain of barley would have yielded seven measures of barley. How much barley has been lost?

The papyrus also contains the calculation of the area of a circle, attempts to square the circle and finally calculations of the cubic measurements of pyramids.—New York Tribune.

ENLIVENED THE SCENE.

But Hero's Improvisation Did Not Help Leander Much.

Innumerable are the tales of actors in difficulties. Here is one related of Christian Brandes, the dramatist, who in his youth belonged to a strolling company which played pieces of an extremely primitive kind.

On one occasion the play was entitled "Hero and Leander," the dialogue being left pretty much to the discretion of the players. It had been agreed, however, that Hero was to be coy and not confess her love for Leander till he had again and again expressed his readiness to be hanged, burned and drowned in her behalf.

But the lady was soft hearted, besides being exceedingly fond of Brandes, nor could she listen unmoved to the first passionate pleadings of the youth, who explained that he had swum across the Hellespont to see her. "My dear Leander," she exclaimed, "I cannot resist you. Accept my hand and my heart."

Leander knew not what to say. All his prepared phrases were useless. The manager came to his aid with a loud whisper addressed to Hero, "In the friend's name, improvise a few words and retire!"

The poor girl, turning to the audience, repeated her lesson. "In the friend's name, I improvise a few words and retire," and then tripped off the stage, greatly relieved.—London Graphic.

A Rossini Joke.

Rossini promised a place in the opera orchestra to a trombonist and then forgot about it, says the Musical Courier. At one of his dinner parties the butler announced the visit of this same protégé. Rossini hastened to welcome him and, relieving him of his instrument, disappeared a few moments, to return with his friend. Handing the instrument to the trombonist with a request to let the company hear him, Rossini prepared to listen. Trombone to lips, the musician rose—disarray, no sound, cheeks bulging, eyes distended. In vain the unhappy man makes superhuman efforts to produce harmonious sounds. At last! Oh, effort supreme! With a sound like a hoarse goose he emits there shoots from the trombone a mass of sticky macaroni. "No harm, my friend," said Rossini; "you have proved yourself a strong musician."

And the next day the coveted position was offered to the trombonist.—Boston Transcript.

Sunlight and Germs.

Here is an instructive experiment made recently on the effects of sunlight. Some germs of the terrible disease, anthrax, were sown on two plates of gelatin, and while one plate was kept in the dark the other was placed in the sunlight. The germs grew, and at the end of ten minutes there were 300 colonies or groups in the sunshine plate and 400 colonies in the dark plate.

One hour later the result was: In the sunshine plate, none; in the dark plate, 2,520. No disease germ thrives in sunlight.

Modesty.

Modesty is one of the sweetest and most desirable qualities one can possess, and yet too much modesty hinders advancement. When this quality is overdeveloped it antagonizes aggressiveness, without which no great success can be attained.

Parried.

Wife—A tree, you know, gets new clothes every year—hat, parasol, everything. Husband—Yes, darling—and makes them all itself.

What She Might Catch.

She—They say there are germs in kisses. What do you suppose a girl could catch that way? He—A husband.—Exchange.

Resist thy inclinations in the beginning.—Thomas a Kempis.

RIDING A CAMEL.

A Stronuous Task That Promotes a Love of Walking.

Riding a camel is by no means an easy or enjoyable method of locomotion, according to the description given by Mr. M. J. Randall in his book, "Sinai In Spring."

"If asked 'How do you ride a camel?' I reply invent as many attitudes as you can and employ them all in turn; adjust and readjust the rugs and cushions on which you sit; ride straight; ride crooked; ride with stirrups made of rope; ride without them; hitch first your right knee round the front pommel, then your left knee; stretch your self wide legged over the saddlebags regardless of the firearms, dates, crockery, etc., which they contain until nature commands you to make a less obtuse angle; ride side saddle, if you can persuade your Bedouin that it is possible to do so without prejudice to the camel. Ride how you will and when you will, but, above all—walk. Not only is the sheik himself glad at your suggestion, but not otherwise to mount for awhile, but it is a lesson in graceful riding to watch him perched up there, heaven knows how, in some oriental way you have never dreamed of, and it is a lesson in courtesy to mark how at every turn of the road he offers to forgo his pipe of peace—chibouk—and part of comfort and descend to the sand, leaving you to lumber his beast of burden."

LUGGAGE IN ENGLAND.

None of It Goes Astray Because the People Are All Very Honest.

Certain strangers within our gates have been wondering at our dealing with passengers' luggage—how much better the system of other countries, where you get a receipt and when the bag goes astray the official assures you it is impossible because there is the receipt. So you go to bed and get up and dress in your bit of paper.

Our method is insular and on the face of it chaotic. We throw our luggage to the mercy of some unknown porter. At the end of the journey we find a sort of lucky tub of portable property piled on the platform, and we plunge about and pick out what we want. You know the scene—a hundred people who have only to say "That's mine" to a strange porter in order to get it.

Thus badly stated the system looks like chaos and the invitation to a general scramble for other men's goods. In practice it works out well, for every one, from porter to passenger, is on his honor, and this is the point—luggage in England is safer than in any other civilized country.—Westminster Gazette.

The Steamboat.

Fulton himself said one day: "Neither Mr. Desblandes nor I invented the steamboat. If that glory belongs to any one it is to the author of the experiments at Lyons—of the experiments made in 1783 on the Saone." The one Fulton had in mind and to whom he thus generously rendered the "glory" was the Marquis de Jouffray, born in 1751, fourteen years before the year of Fulton's birth. Jouffray's claim to be regarded as the inventor of the steamboat stands thus: His vessel, built in 1783, notwithstanding its faulty construction, embodied all the elements essential to success. In it he anticipated Watts' invention of a steam engine having a constant and unremitting action. Lack of funds was the only thing that stood in the way of his getting all the honors that came later to Robert Fulton.—New York American.

The Laugh on Edison.

There are many stories of Edison. One of his early childhood is recorded on the authority of his only sister. When he was about six years old he found out that a goose belonging to the family was sitting. Later he saw the surprising result in a number of goslings. One day he was missing. He was sought everywhere, but no one could find him until at length his father discovered him in the barn curled up in a nest he had made and filled with goose eggs and hen eggs. He was sitting on the eggs and trying to hatch them!—London Tatler.

Synonyms.

The French Canadian always has trouble with the aspirate "th." At a debating club in the province of Quebec members were required to draw a slip from a hat and debate upon the subject they received. A young countryman arose.

"I have drew the word 'bat.' I must told you dere is two, tree different kind of bat. Dere is de bat wot you play the baseball wit, de bat wot fly in de air at night and also de bat where you take de swim."—Success Magazine.

After the Honeymoon.

"Anyhow, Jack, you cannot say that I ran after you at the time of our marriage."

"You never spoke a truer word, Maria, but neither does the mousetrap run after the mouse, yet it catches it all the same."

Shorn.

"Miss Ella, was your bazaar a success?"

"Glorious! All the men had to walk home!"—Meggendorfer Blatter.

FAMILY THEATRE

One of the best comedy acts that has appeared in Dixon is on the bill for the first half of this week at the Family theatre. This is Sutton & Sutton in The Pumpkin Girl. "Rube" Sutton is a natural comedian and his every action as well as word brings laughter from his audience. Kitty Sutton is a winsome little dancer and contortionist and rounds out the act to a finish. The other vaudeville number of the present bill is Bliss & Ross, a novelty dancing team of more than ordinary ability which draws its share of the applause of the evening. The pictures for tonight will be Jealous George, and A Miners Daughter. The latter is a western picture, the story being set in beautiful scenery.

ALL YOU NEED IS A CASCARET TONIGHT

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

Joan of Arc's Bell.

In the cathedral church of Notre Dame, Paris, there is a bell which dates from the days of Joan of Arc—the "blessed bell" which sounded the tocsin when the Maid of Orleans appeared in August, 1420, and Paris was besieged by the English. This historic bell, referred to by Victor Hugo in "Notre Dame de Paris," was given to the cathedral in 1420 by Jean de Montaigne. It was refounded in 1686 and then rebaptized under the name of Emmanuel Louise Therese in honor of Louis XIV. and Marie Therese of Austria.—London Globe.

He Knew Jim.

Jim had made an unsuccessful attempt to conquer the world and came back to the Tennessee town dirty, worn out and hungry.

"Uncle John," he said melodramatically, "I came home to die."

"No, doc, gnat you," said unsympathetic Uncle Jim. "You came home to eat!"—Success Magazine.

It Surely Will.

"And you like chicken, Sam?"

"Geel! I certainly does, boss."

"And you get 'em once in awhile?"

"Oh, sure, boss, I gets 'em."

"How do you get 'em, Sam?"

"Well, boss, you know dat of sayin' 'Love' will find the way."—Yonkers Statesman.

ATTEMPT TO KILL PRESIDENT TAFT

Dynamite Placed under Spar of Big Railroad Trestle.

MISCREANTS ARE SHOT AT

Two Men Sought to Commit Crime but Watchfulness of Railroad Men Brings Their Efforts to Naught.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—At a big trestle near Santa Barbara an attempt was made to wreck President Taft's train on the Southern Pacific, and that it failed was due to the watchfulness of railroad men.

Thirty sticks of dynamite and a ten-foot fuse placed on the track are in the possession of Southern Pacific officials.

The railroad watchman at El Capitán bridge, a structure about seven hundred feet long across the gorge near Gavilota station, ten miles north of Santa Barbara, saw two men walk down the track about 2 a. m. and stop near the middle of the big bridge. His suspicions were aroused and he gave chase. As the men ran he fired several shots at them, but they made their escape in the darkness.

Investigation showed thirty dynamite sticks made up in a bundle with a fuse already attached. There was enough of the explosive to destroy the entire bridge. A telegraph operator says he saw two men get off the north-bound train a short time before.

There is no clew as to the identity of the dynamiters.

GREETED BY CHILDREN

President Is Prettily Welcomed to Los Angeles—Talks on Tariff.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 17.—Twelve thousand white frocked and bareheaded school children massed under the bright southern California sky welcomed President Taft to Los Angeles.

Dr. W. A. Edwards, President Taft's brother-in-law, was the first person to board the president's car here. Dr. Edwards spent the day with Mr. Taft and was his host for the night.

When the president left the field where the school children greeted him, they began to run after his automobile pell-mell. They crashed against the wire that the police had stretched to guard the president's route and for a mile or two the situation became dangerous for some of the smaller tots nearest the wire.

The police were obliged to cut it down and release the crush of children. Then they flooded out around the president's automobile, which was stopped, and Mr. Taft found himself in the midst of an acre or more of yelling children, pushing, scrambling and waving flags.

After he had accepted the children's greetings, the president went to a theater for his first address. There he paid his compliments to the women of California. About half the audience was women and when the president began to talk he told them that he had compared notes with their mayor, George Alexander, and that they had both decided that since the suffrage had been extended to California women they would both have to make their bows to them deeper.

The president spoke upon the tariff. After his speech he was taken in an automobile to Pasadena for luncheon. The day was warm even for this vicinity. He stopped on the way to talk to the students of the Occidental college. Many of them were women and the president again touched upon suffrage.

After his return to Los Angeles the president visited a meeting of the negroes of the town.

REORGANIZE TOBACCO TRUST

Special Attorney McReynolds Speaks
His Personal Opinion.

New York, Oct. 17.—The plan for the reorganization of the American Tobacco company was filed with the United States circuit court. The court set Oct. 30 for the hearing.

James C. McReynolds, special assistant United States attorney general in the tobacco case, when asked if he had seen the plan, replied: "Oh, yes. It's an old story to me. And speaking of course, only for myself, I regard it as a plain subterfuge which deserved an expeditious commitment to the scrap heap." Mr. McReynolds said that the government would not file its answer to the American Tobacco company's petition until he should have time to confer with Attorney General Wickham about it, which will not be before the latter part of this week.

AIRSHIPS AS MAIL CARRIERS

Postmaster General Wants
$50,000 to Make Tests.

$150,000 FOR PARCELS POST

Mr. Hitchcock Is Convinced That the Aeroplane Will Soon Be a Practical Utility in the Postal Service—His Estimates.

A recommendation that $50,000 be appropriated to enable postal officials to make experiments in the transportation of mail by aeroplane was embraced in estimates forwarded to the treasury department by Postmaster General Hitchcock.

The postmaster general is convinced that the aeroplane will soon be a practical utility in the postal service. He points out, for example, that its use would effect great economies in the transportation of mail in Alaska, where routes, owing to circuitous roads and obstructions, are long and difficult to traverse. In a number of instances in Alaska mail routes may be materially shortened by following straight air line trips made by aeroplanes. There are other sections of the country where conditions obtain in the postal service that would be improved by the utilization of mail airships.

The postmaster general's estimates, which will be used by congress as a basis for making appropriations for the postoffice department for the fiscal year that will begin July 1, 1912, contain other important recommendations. For example, the postmaster general asks for an appropriation of $50,000 to cover the preliminary expenses of establishing a parcels post on rural mail routes and a like appropriation to start the parcels post system in the city delivery service. The postmaster general is a strong advocate of the installation of the parcels post in both the city and rural services. He believes that after the initial expenses of establishing are defrayed and the parcels post is in full operation on the rural mail routes it will not only bring in some of the revenue to meet its cost, but also a surplus that can be utilized in paying the expenses of a parcels post in the city delivery service. He recommends a $50,000 appropriation for the latter service in order to cover certain expenses to be incurred before the system is in full operation.

Other Items.

In addition to these two items the postmaster general includes one of $50,000 to cover an investigation having for its object the final establishment of a general parcels post on all railway and steamboat transportation routes. By including in his estimates these three items Mr. Hitchcock will submit squarely to congress the question of establishing a parcels post, for the postal committees of the house and senate will have to pass directly on each item. He is confident that legislation authorizing a parcels post in some form will pass next year.

Still another item included in Mr. Hitchcock's estimates is one of $50,000 for the purchase of time and labor saving mechanical devices for use in the postoffice. In the last two years many such appliances have been introduced in the postal service, and the economies thus effected have, officials say, far exceeded the cost. An item of $10,000 is added to be expended in giving rewards to postal employees who invent improved mechanical appliances that accelerate the handling of the mails, the purpose being to afford every possible incentive for the production of such inventions.

The postal estimates call for a total appropriation of $260,938,463, an increase of $2,585,740 over the appropriation for the current year.

MAIL BOXES FOR PASSENGERS

Hitchcock Orders Them Put in All Railway Stations.

In order that the traveling public may enjoy the conveniences of the postal service, Postmaster General Hitchcock has directed that all postmasters in cities operating free delivery be instructed to place a street letter box at all railroad stations.

These boxes are to be located in conspicuous places as near as possible to the center of the platform and painted a distinctive color, such as may be recognizable at a distance. At stations where there are double tracks and passenger platforms on each side a box will be placed on each platform at the most convenient point for the traveling public. Collections will be made from the station boxes by the city letter carriers at regular intervals, and letters will be handled with the same dispatch as the usual first class city mail.

Secretary Meyer Will Ask For About

Secretary of the Navy Meyer has completed the estimates for his department for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 1912. The estimates are practically the same as last year, at about $125,000,000. Secretary Meyer will shortly begin the work of writing his annual report. He will recommend the construction of two Dreadnoughts of about 28,000 tons displacement.

The sad news of the death of Mr. Joseph Bernardin Sr., of Amboy, reached our desk Friday morning. Mr. Bernardin had been sick for only a week and so sudden is his demise that it hardly seems real to his scores of relatives and friends here. The immediate cause of his death is believed to be poisoning due to eating chicken. Mr. Bernardin's health had always been good in his younger days, but since he has reached his old days he has had to suffer various troubles and only a couple of years ago he submitted to an operation from which he never did fully recover. He always felt the effects of the surgeon's knife, but was much relieved as a result of the operation, nevertheless. He died on Friday, at 8 a. m.

George B. Shaw will call on West Brooklyn friends this week.

BIOGRAPHY OF JOSEPH BERNARDIN

DIN SR.

Joseph Bernardin reached his 72nd birthday anniversary on September 6th, last, being born in the year 1839 in the village of Louxouel, in the department of Vesoul, France. He parents, Peter and Mary (Boffy) Bernardin, were also natives of the sunny land of France until their emigration to America in 1855. The father came to this country first, however, to prepare a home for the remainder of his family and settled in Sciota, county, Ohio. With his capital of $300 he purchased a farm of 260 acres of timber land twelve miles from the town of Portsmouth, and proceeded at once to clear it for farming. The elder Bernardin paid $1.25 for this land per acre. He erected a shanty for a temporary shelter which he afterward replaced with a substantial log house. After hard work he cleared his land and made it into a good farm upon which he resided until 1870 when he decided to remove to Lee county, Illinois.

All this was transpiring during the early years of our deceased and as this country was a wilderness he was left to grow up with it. He attended school until twelve years of age and acquired a good common education, which he improved with experience, making him a well read man. After he reached his twelfth year he helped his father on his farm and between the two they soon improved it in wonderful style. But going back to their emigration to America in 1855, we learn of the experience which they had to go through to land in this country. They journeyed by rail to Havre de Grace, France, and October 16 of that year embarked on a sailing vessel at that port for the coast of England. The ship collided with a war vessel and had to lay by at Plymouth, England, twenty-four days for repairs. Starting once again on its voyage it crossed the ocean in safety and arrived at New Orleans on January 12th, 1856. The family went by way of the Mississippi river to Cairo, thence to a port on the Ohio river, from where they proceeded by rail to Portsmouth. His father being in limited circumstances, the younger Bernardin had to assist in the support of the family and was of great help in clearing the land of the timber upon it. After 1870, when the family came to Lee County, the son purchased a farm for himself, in what is now Viola township, where he grew to manhood, and where he lived until a few years ago. He has done well in every way. He has been rewarded financially for his diligence in his work and for his excellent management of his home. He fought a brave fight and his figure will long remain in the memories of all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

The deceased was first married on April 14, 1866 to Miss Palmyrie Rangee, a native of France. She died in 1874, leaving her husband and four children, Mrs. Julius Arnould, Compton, Henry A., West Brooklyn, and Charles J. of Compton, also Joseph, who died in his youth. He was married on Jan. 21, 1877, to Mrs. Catherine Barlow, also a native of France but who came to this country in an early day. To this union four children were born, Julius F., of West Brooklyn, Peter J. of Amboy, Mrs. Mark Schroer of Ransselear, Ind., and Frank J., who died in infancy. The deceased and his family are members of St. Patrick's church of Amboy. The funeral services will be held in this church Monday morning and the body will be taken to West Brooklyn where other services will be held in St. Mary's church, with interment in the Catholic cemetery at West Brooklyn beside the graves of his parents and little son. Mr. Bernardin was a kind and faithful father and husband and beloved by all who knew him. It was a sad blow to

Why is the soda cracker to-day such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

To-day there is a soda cracker which is the recognized staple — Uneeda Biscuit.

Uneeda Biscuit are the most nutritious food made from flour and should be eaten every day by every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest.

Uneeda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package.

Come and see our crops; they are twice as good as in the county west of us, and last year we had many times the grain raised in Towner county. Our altitude and clay subsoil with shale below makes the difference. Even last year some grain crops sold for enough to pay for the land. They will do it again this year and I would not trade one quarter here for ten quarters in parts of South Dakota, where land has sold for more than the price of this and some for twice as much. MRS. HARRIMAN BACKS CANCER CAUSE RESEARCH.

Work Is Already Under Way—Special Laboratory to Be Built.

A new research laboratory is to be added to the Roosevelt hospital, New York, through the generosity of Mrs. E. H. Harriman. It will make a specialty of "physiological chemistry," according to Dr. William Gordon Lyle, who was Mr. Harriman's private physician for several years and during his last illness.

Dr. Lyle is director of the laboratory and dispenser of the fund, which also includes a handsome endowment under which researches into the origin of and remedy for cancer have been going on for the last two years.

It appears that Mrs. Harriman's donation to Roosevelt hospital was one of her first benefactions after Mr. Harriman's death, in September, 1909, the research work having been instituted during the October following.

As the death of the railroad magnate was generally supposed to have been caused by cancer of the stomach, although Dr. Lyle's certificate stated it as "edema of the lungs," some question has been raised among medical men, who have conjectured that the work going on at Roosevelt hospital was subsidized by Mrs. Harriman, as to whether rumors current at the time were not correct.

Dr. Lewis R. Morris, who is Dr. Lyle's associate and who was also a friend and medical attendant of Mr. Harriman, is to be in charge of the erection of the new laboratory. For the last two years three chemists who are specialists in the subject have been at work daily experimenting as to causes of the cancer scourge, and all the expenses of the physiological laboratory work have been assumed by Mrs. Harriman.

Just what results have been attained none of those engaged in it will say, but medical men who have got wind of the investigations and have been trying to surprise those engaged in it into some admission say they have been led to believe that substantial discoveries of a startling nature have been made.

It could not be learned just how much money Mrs. Harriman had devoted to this subject. Dr. Lyle, however, referred to Mrs. Harriman's gift last August of $50,000 for the establishment in California of a bacteriological and pathological laboratory for the Southern Pacific system and of a gift of $100,000 to Yale for similar uses. Another endowment of $25,000 on similar lines was for the "E. H. Harriman research fund of the Adirondack Cottage sanitarium" at Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Mrs. Harriman is now in Ireland, but is expected to return in a few weeks, when full details of the new addition to Roosevelt hospital will be made public.

MOTHER AND SON.

They Both Are Studying Law and Expect to Become Partners.

Mrs. Sarah T. Andrew, aged forty, has matriculated at the Washington College of Law, and her son, Herbert B. Andrew, twenty, has started a law course in the law department of the Catholic university.

Mrs. Andrew is the wife of a government clerk. Before she married she taught school in Missouri. Herbert has just completed an academical course at Gonzaga college, Mrs. Andrew said.

"It is the intention of Herbert and myself to complete our courses here and take the Washington bar examinations. If we are successful we will go back to Missouri and put out a joint 'shingle'."

"I have been after mother for years to get her to study law," Herbert said, "because I believe by nature and training she is especially suited for a legal career. I am delighted that she has started and look forward with pleasure to the day when the sign of Andrew & Andrew will appear at our old home in Missouri."

PLAN INSURGENT ORGAN.

Newspaper to Be Launched at Chicago With $2,000,000.

Prominent insurgents will spend $2,000,000 to start a national organ. The paper is to be published in Chicago, and the first edition is scheduled to appear about the middle of November.

The most significant part of the plan as disclosed is that it originates from the same people who have been managing the campaign of Senator Robert M. La Follette, but it is denied that the paper is to be made a personal organ for La Follette's boom for the presidency. It is stated that nearly $500,000 is pledged for the purpose. The newspaper will be incorporated, according to the present plans, at $2,000,000.

HARVARD UNION BARS DRINK.

Even the Football Team May Be Denied Its Weekly Ale.

Liquor has been barred at the Harvard Union, the big university clubhouse, which welcomes to its abode the poor as well as the rich—in fact, every student in the university who desires to join it.

The edict comes as a surprise, as many dinners and alumni reunions were held there.

If the new varsity club, which is an annex to the union, is included in the dictum it will be a blow to the football team, which is allowed ale at meals once a week.

AN INSPIRING TRIBUTE.

It Made a Remarkable Scene in the House of Representatives.

A touching scene occurred in the house of representatives a number of years ago when an aged member from New Jersey arose and for the first time addressed the speaker. All eyes were turned in his direction as he stood calmly awaiting recognition. He was tall, spare and erect. His venerable appearance and kindly expression, coupled with most courteous manners, at once commanded attention.

As in husky tones he again said "Mr. Speaker" there came from the farthest end of the great hall in a whisper, but distinctly heard by all, the words, "Sweet Alice, Ben Bolt." A moment later and from the floor and gallery many voices blended in the familiar refrain, "Don't you remember sweet Alice, Ben Bolt?"

The ovation which immediately followed was such as is rarely witnessed in the great hall. Business was suspended for the moment and the hand of the new member warmly grasped by the chosen representatives of all parties and sections. It was an inspiring tribute, one worthily bestowed. The member was Thomas Dunn English, author of the little poem, sung in palace and cottage, which found its way into all languages and touched all hearts.—Adlai E. Stevenson in "Something of Men I Have Known."

Black Eggs.

The black Cayuga duck, a South American bird, frequently lays black eggs. The coloring does not penetrate the shell, being due to an oily pigment which can be rubbed off. In successive layings the coloring fades and disappears.

Dear Sir—I received the copy of "Home Made Hash" which you so kindly sent me. Almost immediately after receiving it, but not before I tasted it and found it palatable and nourishing, I received orders to proceed to the Philippine Islands. Hence this delay.

I enjoyed the "Hash" very much and found it not the least bit indigestible. Like the taste of all good things, it makes me want more.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE THEME FOR CLUB.

JULIUS BERNARDIN IS DEAD

Missionary Society Is Packing Barrel of Fruit for Deaconess' Home.

Amboy, Oct. 17.—The Woman's club met Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Cornelia Badger, in Binghampton, 31 ladies making the trip on a special electric car. Two new members, Mrs. H. H. Appelman and Mrs. A. A. Carmichael were voted into the club and two, Mrs. J. E. Lewis and Mrs. H. Klein, were reinstated at their request as members. The president reported that the proceeds of the Spicers' Convention, when all debts were paid, would be at least $125 for the library fund, and she desired to publicly thank all who assisted in any way toward the success of that undertaking.

The subject for the day was Woman's Suffrage, and the roll call responses were noted suffragettes. The principal feature of the program was a talk on Woman's Suffrage by Miss Mary Egan, who presented the subject in a very pleasing and convincing manner from the standpoint of one who very positively favors the movement. A short paper on the subject by a noted suffragist was read by Mrs. J. A. Cullar. Two piano solos rendered by Misses Josephine Egan and Stella Klein added to the enjoyment of the afternoon. At the close of the program Miss Josephine Egan tendered her resignation as president of the club owing to the fact that she will soon leave Amboy for the winter. Mrs. Emma Sanger was then elected president and Mrs. C. C. Jacobs, first vice president, to fill vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Doty from that office at the last meeting. After greeting the new officers the meeting adjourned.

LA FOLLETTE IS NAMED FOR 1912

Progressives Would Like to See Him Nominated.

REPUBLICAN FACTION MEETS

Platform of Principles Adopted Favors Legislation to Place Business on Safe Basis and Primary Vote for President.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—The 200 delegates in attendance at the national progressive Republican conference at the Hotel LaSalle endorsed Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin for the Republican nomination for president in 1912.

The Chicago gathering will close this evening with a big mass meeting in Orchestra hall to boost the Wisconsin senator.

Indorsement of the Wisconsin progressive came in the evening after a long day of speechmaking in the enunciation of principles which were in part reported back to the conference by the committee on resolutions.

The platform of Republican principles as embodied in the resolutions makes no mention of the tariff, nor does it include the progressive principles of the initiative and referendum.

The platform, in part, is as follows: "The progressive movement aims to nominate and elect as candidates of the Republican party men who will with sincerity and singleness of purpose represent the rank and file and carry out their will."

"The present condition of uncertainty in business is intolerable and destructive of industrial prosperity. It is worse than idle to leave the question of whether great business enterprises are legal or not merely to judicial determination."

"Industrial corporations should be given definite rules of conduct by which business conducted in accordance therewith shall be made safe and stable while at the same time the interests of the public shall be fully safeguarded. We seek constructive legislation and not destructive litigation."

"We favor the ascertainment of the choice of Republican voters as to candidates for president by a direct primary vote held in each state, pursuant to statute, and where no such statute exists we urge that the Republican state committees provide that the people be given the right to express their choice for president."

BLOODSHED IN TRIPOLI

Sentry Fires on Native Woman, Killing One and Injuring Four.

London, Oct. 17.—All press dispatches from Tripoli must now be mailed to Malta, as the cable is being monopolized by the naval and military authorities of Italy. Practically no news is being received direct.

Word comes that more bloodshed was witnessed at Tripoli. The correspondent of the Telegraph says that a native woman was challenged by a sentry for entering a section of the city to which she was forbidden. She ran away and immediately the sentry fired, killing one person and wounding four others.

THROWN FROM AUTO; SERIOUSLY HURT

MRS. ANNA STEWARD SUFFERED PAINFUL INJURY NORTH OF CITY TODAY.

Mrs. Anna Stewart, 701 E. Chamberlain street, was very painfully and probably seriously injured to morning when she was thrown from an automobile in which she was riding, alighting upon her head. The unfortunate lady, in company with other members of the missionary society of the Evangelical church, was enroute to the Addison Missman home on the Woosung road to spend the day when the accident occurred.

The party were riding in George Carbaugh's automobile, and as the machine approached the Plum Hollow bridge the driver partially lost control of the machine in the slippery mud and it struck the bridge. Mrs. Stewart, who was sitting at the outside of the seat, was thrown out of the rear of the car and struck on her head on the bridge.

She was unconscious when her friends picked her up and she was brought to the hospital in this city as quickly as possible. It was not until after she had been taken to the hospital that she regained consciousness. The attending surgeon doesn't think there is a fracture of the skull, but fears a concussion of the brain. A definite diagnosis of the extent of her injuries can not be made for 24 hours.

BODY OF YOUNG MAN FOUND IN COLORADO POSSIBLE REL-ATIVE OF JHN SCHUMM.

Word was received by the police authorities in Morrison yesterday from Julesburg, Col., seeking the identity of the body of a young man found there who wore a suit of clothes with the label of a Morrison clothing house. The supposition is that the body is that of Fred Wohrley, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John Schumm of Dixon, who left Morrison Oct. 4th for the west after buying a suit of clothes from the store mentioned.

The description given is that the young man was about 25 or 30 years of age, about six feet, two inches in height, had curly hair and brown eyes. The suit he wore was a blue serge. A photo of Fred Wohrley was sent to Julesburg this afternoon and a telegram instructing that the body be held for identification.

Both the Ashton and Rock Falls lodges will confer the Sublime Degree, starting at about 2 o'clock with the Ashton delegation, and the rest of the afternoon will probably be taken up with these ceremonies. From 6 until 7 o'clock a banquet will be served by the ladies of the Eastern Star. The Rock Falls lodge will confer the Sublime Degree in the evening and refreshments will be served when these rites have been completed.

Every member of Friendship lodge No. 7 is urgently requested to be in attendance at both afternoon and evening sessions. There will probably be 25 or 30 brothers from Ashton and 30 or 35 from Rock Falls.

M. J. GANNON HAS ENOUGH OF AUTO

Commissioner M. J. Gannon is loud in his opinion that an automobile may be all right for house to house calls, but as a competitor to a passenger train in getting over the country, it isn't there. Reason? M. J. arrived home last night from Chicago after a lovely trip of three days on the road—and then he came in on a passenger train, taking that train at DeKalb. And the first thing he did after getting home was to hunt up Bill Schuler, grab his mitt, and apologize for everything he ever said about the condition of Dixon's streets, for, says Mr. Gannon, no matter how bad the streets here get, they can't be one, two, three with some of the bottomless lakes that automobile tried to go through.

Find the Man

Every man and woman is anxious to buy some article—necessity or luxury—every day of his or her life. Single handed it would take you months to seek out those interested in your line of business.

An advertisement in this paper does the work instantaneously. It corals the purchaser—brings him to your store—makes him buy things you advertised.

PASSENGER TRAFFIC STOPPED

Trains Being Used to Move Troops, Which is Being Done at Lively Rate—American Legation Well Guarded.

Pekin, Oct. 17.—The official announcement is made here that Yuan Shih Kai has accepted the viceroyalty of the province of Kwangtung, and this fact has caused a general feeling of optimism in official circles here.

It is believed that the mere name of the new viceroy will strike terror to the hearts of the revolutionaries. He will establish his headquarters for the present seventy miles north of Hankow.

Notice has been given that after the departure today of the Siberian express, passenger traffic between Peking and Tien Tsin will cease. It is believed that the notice will cause a panic when it becomes known to the public. So far as can be seen there is no need for the stoppage, as the road has ample rolling stock not only to accommodate the public, but to move all the necessary troops. Trains have been waiting for hours at Fengtai for the arrival of troops.

Many of the Chinese officials are sending their families away. The morning's train for Tien Tsin was crowded with passengers of that character.

The guard at the American legation has been increased by the arrival of ninety additional marines from Manila.

Great military activity is in evidence around Peking. Twenty-four heavily laden troop trains have passed that point in the last three days going south and twelve more are expected from Tai Ping, where the sixth army division is quartered.

CHINESE SAY, "HANDS OFF"

Urge that United States Use Its Influence to Maintain Neutrality.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—The Chinese National association, from headquarters in this city, sent copies of this telegram to President Taft in Los Angeles and to Secretary of State Knox in Washington:

"The Chinese National association, representing three-fourths of the Chinese residents of the United States, British Columbia and Mexico, earnestly requests the United States government to use its best offices to maintain and preserve the neutrality of the powers towards the revolutionary struggle now in progress in China, in order that her integrity may be preserved and a stable government established."

Three imperial Chinese gunboats were sunk by shells from Hankow forts, in the hands of the rebels, according to cable advices received by the Chinese Press in this city. The fourth gunboat with the viceroy of Hupeh, escaped to the protection of the foreign warships, anchored in the vicinity of the foreign concessions.

Missionaries Ordered to Leave

London, Oct. 17.—The Wesleyan missionary society of London has received a dispatch from Hankow stating that the British consul has ordered all missionaries to leave Wu Chang, Han Yang, Hankow and Kweang-tse. The dispatch adds: "The missionaries in the concessions and at outside stations are safe, so far as we know."

PLAN HARLAN MEMORIAL

Friends of the Justice Suggest Presbyterian Temple Form.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Plans for the erection of a great Presbyterian temple in memory of Justice Harlan of the supreme court of the United States already are being considered here. It is suggested that $1,000,000 be raised by subscription throughout the country to build the temple.

Justice Harlan during the latter years of his life hoped to interest Presbyterians in the erection of a temple to be the meeting place of the governing body of the church and the plan proposed by friends here is to carry out his idea and at the same time provide an appropriate memorial to the distinguished jurist.

BLAIR IS TANGLED UP

Confronted with Hotel Register He Admits Olney Visit.

Legislator Had Plenty of Money After that and Showed Roll at Central Ball Game.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—What is regarded as a hard blow for Senator Lorimer in the senate committee's investigation of his election came with the testimony of William C. Blair of Mt. Vernon, former representative, the first of the Tiptit Democrats in the general assembly to vote for Lorimer. The committee established through Mr. Blair's testimony that he was in Olney, Ill., the home of Tiptit, on the night of July 19, 1909, and that on the following day he exhibited a roll of $100 bills amounting to nearly $1,000 at a ball game at Centralia. A startling climax developed when, after Blair had testified repeatedly that he had not been to Olney during July or August, 1909, Attorney John J. Healy of counsel for the committee, produced the register of the National hotel and asked the witness if his name appearing under the date of July 19, 1909, had been written by him. Mr. Blair's face colored perceptibly and his hand trembled so much that he was scarcely able to hold the book. In a trembling voice he admitted that the handwriting was his. He said he must have been there, but had no recollection of it.

Under a fire of questions from members of the committee the witness changed his previous testimony and admitted that he had passed the night at Olney and on the next day went to the ball game at Centralia.

PROOF IS CALLED FOR

Accusers of Stephenson Must Come up to Rack.

U. S. Committee Hears More Testimony on Charge Wisconsin Man Bought Office.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 17.—Every Wisconsin legislator who supported charges that United States Senator Isaac Stephenson was elected through bribery, will be asked to produce evidence at the investigation being made by the United States senate committee.

This was made evident when the committee swore in as witnesses, S. M. Marsh, Thomas Morris, now lieutenant governor, and Paul O. Hustins, who, as state senators, sustained in an official report the charges against Stephenson.

L. E. Dresser testified he spent $2,300 given him out of the $107,795 Stephenson campaign fund. He used it, he said, to pay campaign expenses while he was a member of the state board of control.

E. M. Hyzer, general counsel for the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, testified the railroad never interested itself in the campaign opposed to Stephenson.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 17.—The American prison congress, with delegates from United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba, opened a week's convention with Henry K. W. Scott, warden of New Hampshire state prison at Concord, in the chair.

Attorney General Wickersham was in the audience during the morning, but took no part in the discussions.

A Good Listener.

Alfred Henry Lewis, the author, was walking up Pennsylvania avenue one day when he met Louis Brownlow, the magazine writer.

"Louis," said Lewis solemnly, "listen to me—for three hours."

"Why, what's the matter?" asked Brownlow.

"Why," said Lewis indignantly, "I've been in this town all day, and everybody else has been doing the talking. I do love my little conversation!"

Brownlow went to luncheon with him and, after doing a sprint in long distance listening, pulled out his watch with the remark: "Lewis, I've listened to you for three hours and nine minutes. Goodbye."—New York Tribune.

The Genuine Article.

"I don't know about this picture, Bobby," said the visitor as he ran for specimens of the youngster's camera work. "I am afraid a dog with a propeller instead of a tail is something of a fake."

"That ain't a propeller," said Bobby. "That's his tail. He kept waggin' it while his picture was being tookened."—Harper's Weekly.

TRADE MORAL—This paper's advertising columns are the business news of the community. If you happen to need a new parlor carpet, you will be a lot more interested in a carpet ad. than in a paragraph about Jim Jones' newly painted barn. That's why everybody in this vicinity reads this paper's ads.

TRADE MORAL—Introducing the buyer to the merchant is the purpose accomplished by our advertising columns. The integrity of both are vouched for.

YOU ARE READING THIS AD.—OTHERS WILL READ YOURS

MOST everybody reads the ads. in this paper. They furnish as much news to the man in town and on the farm as the personala, and often more. Peter Smith's wife wants a new hat. Smith reads by the paper that Jones is selling hats at so much. Johnson's store ad. is missing from the paper—Johnson's trying a non-advertising policy.

RESULT—Jones gets Smith's money
Smith's wife gets her hat.

HOME RUN WINS SECOND CONTEST

Victory Accompanies Baker's Tremendous Drive.

PHILADELPHIA BEATS NEW YORK

Athletics and Giants Have Each a Game in World's Championship Series—Plank Pitches Great Ball—Marquard Goes to Pieces.

Philadelphia, Oct. 17.—The second game in the world's championship series, played at Shibe park, was won by a tremendous hit over the right field fence for a home run.

Frank Baker, the Athletics' third baseman, made this victorious drive which netted a home run in the sixth inning and sent Eddie Collins, who had lined a two bagger to left field a moment before, to the plate ahead of him. The score had been a tie up to this point and the Giants had done their utmost to keep "Rube" Marquard from going into the air, but when the crucial moment arrived Marquard became obstinate. He refused to accept a signal from Chief Meyer for a curve and shot a straight one over the pan instead. The error was fatal, for Baker met the ball with a terrific swing that proved the undoing of McGraw's men.

Marquard was clearly nervous in the first inning when Lord scored the Athletics' first run on a clean single, poor handling of the ball by Murray, a sacrifice and a fearfully wild pitch.

In five other innings Marquard was at his best, using great speed with splendid control and receiving superb backing from Meyers. Had he listened to the big chief's advice he might have escaped the humiliation of defeat and it was evident that McGraw was pained by the incident when he sent Crandall to bat in the Rube's place in the eighth inning.

Opposed to Marquard was Connie Mack's star southpaw, Plank, and he pitched magnificent ball. With the exception of the second inning, when Herzog scored, the Giants' only run on a two bagger, an infield out and a timely single by Meyers, Plank had the New Yorkers at his mercy. He struck out Devore four times in succession, also fanning four other batters.

The New Yorks made five hits to the Athletics' four, but Plank clearly outpitched Marquard.

The Quakers fielded brilliantly without an error and received constant encouragement from thousands of followers who surrounded the playing surface and covered the neighboring house tops. It was a clean cut triumph for the American league champions and when the game was over Philadelphia's team would win the series.

The official paid attendance was 26,286; the gross receipts amounted to $42,962.50; the players' share was $23,199.75. Each club took down $7,733.25, while the national commission's rake-off was $4,296.25. For the two games already played the total gross receipts foot up $120,321.50. Of this amount the players' share reaches $64,978.61. Each club's share totals $21,657.87. The commission's 10 per cent deduction is $12,632.15. The total attendance figures are 64,567.

CIVIL SERVICE CASE BEGUN

Motion for Leave to File Mandamus Suit Against State Treasurer.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 17.—A motion was made in the supreme court for leave to file a petition for a writ of mandamus in the case of the people on the relation of Robert Catherwood, president, and Herbert E. Fleming, secretary, of the Chicago Civil Service Reform association, against Edward Mitchell, state treasurer, to compel him to send to the Illinois state civil service commission his pay roll of employees, except clerks and watchmen, that the commission may certify that they are employed according to law.

The suit is of the same character as that brought by Catherwood and Fleming against State Treasurer Mitchell in the Sangamon circuit court recently and is filed in the supreme court that it may be considered by that tribunal at the same time as the petition of James W. Gullett, Hezekiah D. Williams and James C. Peck, employees in the secretary of state's office, against Auditor McCullough for a writ of mandamus to compel him to issue warrants for their pay on the state treasurer without their names being certified by the state civil service commission.

TAG DAY IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Laden with an inexhaustible supply of tags, an army of 3,500 women sallied forth with the earliest crowds of artisans and merchants in the business district to tag every pedestrian in a campaign for charity.

At every elevated station, at principal street corners and in the entrances to all department stores and office buildings the taggers took positions. It was hoped last year's net collection might be exceeded by $20,000, which meant $75,000 must be raised. The proceeds of tag day will be devoted to the Children's Benefit league. Half a hundred Chicago charitable institutions will be benefited.

Too Many Books.

Barnaby Riche in his preface to "A New Description of Ireland," published in 1600, writes: "One of the diseases of this age is the multitude of books that doth so overcharge the world that it is not able to digest the abundance of idle matter that is every day hatched and brought into the world, that are as divers in their forms as their authors be in their faces. It is but a thriftless and thankless occupation, this writing of books. A man were better to sit singing in a cobbler's shop, for his pay is certainly a penny a patch! But a book writer, if he gets sometimes a few commendations of the judicious, he shall be sure to reap a thousand reproaches of the malicious."

No Use.

Pocahontas had saved the life of Captain John Smith. "What would have been the use of killing him, anyhow, pa?" she said. "There are millions of other John Smiths, and there wouldn't have been a line about it in the papers." Her news instinct was unerring. Saving the captain's life made a first page story of the affair.—Chicago News.
